

A DAY IN WINTER

Washington's Birthday, 1924, will be remembered as a perfect winter's day. The young people had a wonderful time in winter sports, while the Portsmouth Theatre was crowded to see "A Full House," as produced by the Knights of Columbus, with much credit to everyone connected with the undertaking. Portsmouth just loaded and played and everything in the amusement line was well patronized. Washington, his life, patriotism and sacrifices, made that this great country of ours might serve its purpose, was the theme in many of the churches in brief exercises. This part of the program was cared for in all of the schools last week. It is a subject that should be taken more at heart these days. Think of America in the fullest sense these days—and preach it and talk it on every possible occasion.

Fine Performance of "A Full House" Pleases Large and Appreciative Audience at Portsmouth Theatre--Three Performances Given

The Knights of Columbus for the past few years have been doing some very clever work in amateur theatricals, but their 1924 model was the crown of them all. They staged the

HOUSE AND BARN BURNED IN EARLY MORNING BLAZE

Buildings at Gravelly Ridge Owned by William Pray Totally Destroyed

The house and barn of William Pray at Gravelly Ridge were totally destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The chemical was sent to the scene but the storm had made the roads almost impassable and it was not possible for the apparatus to arrive in time to save the buildings. The fire was discovered by Mr. Pray shortly before 3 o'clock and in a very few minutes the buildings were a mass of flames. The fire started in the house and it is thought that it caught around a stove. The buildings were fully covered by insurance. The burned buildings were very near the Woodbury school and it was thought several times that this would catch, but good work on the part of the firemen prevented this building from being destroyed.

SPEAKS BEFORE WOMAN'S CITY CLUB

Mrs. DeNormandie of Boston Delivers Interesting Address--Fine Supper is Served

The Woman's City Club held a very enjoyable gathering at the club building Thursday afternoon.

A delicious supper was served to over 100 members, the menu being as follows:

Clam Chowder Pattle Shells
Creamed Chicken Potato Chips
Fruit Salad
Washington Pie Coffee

The work of the supper committee was much appreciated.

Mrs. Carpenter, the president presented the speaker of the evening, Mrs. DeNormandie of Boston, who is the religious director of the Women's League of Voters for New England. She spoke in a very interesting manner on the work of the league, the different courses of study, etc., and the three different departments: legislative, educational and National cooperation to prevent war.

She said that the League of Women Voters was formed as a potential force after the war. The enfranchising of 20 million women was a force, for either good or evil. Women face problems of government with freshness and enthusiasm. They have no political habits. Therefore, equal suffrage cannot help being a potential force.

The Pan-American Congress of women was a great influence for the women of South America. After this convention they formed a league also.

Mrs. DeNormandie's address was very much appreciated. Several questions came up, and she answered them in detail, dwelling on the fact that New Hampshire was decidedly characteristic in her work.

She believes that all New Englanders are forward-looking people, and said that the "town meetings" which date back years ago, was the original idea that the individual voters should be connected up with the government.

All over the U. S. are study groups. The women study "The Monroe Doctrine," "The World Court," "League of Nations."

We must think of our government as "we" instead of as "you." We must make it our duty to live up to our beloved institutions, among them the one that there can be no government without the consent of the governed. The work of the League will no doubt raise the percent of the registered voters from 50 percent to at least 75 percent.

Mrs. DeNormandie was given a rising vote of thanks for her interesting talk on her work in the New England League.

The supper tables were prettily decorated with red, white and blue and the rooms were decorated with flags.

EX-GOV. CURTIS OF MAINE DEAD

Portland, Me., Feb. 23.—Ex-Governor Oakley Curtis died suddenly yesterday at his Falmouth Foreside residence after suffering for years from a serious malady. He attended to his business affairs in the city yesterday and was not taken ill until late last night.

He was Governor of the state from 1914 to 1916, being elected on the Democratic ticket after a spectacular rise in politics. In 1916 he was defeated for re-election. He was the party candidate for United States senator in 1920 and 1922. In 1911 he was elected mayor of Portland, and served for the three years succeeding. He was state representative in 1903, and senator in 1905-7.

HOLIDAY WAS A QUIET ONE

Washington's Birthday was observed as a general holiday throughout the city yesterday but it was a quiet one. The only outward signs of the holiday was the ringing of the church bells at 7 o'clock in the morning, at noon and at 6 o'clock in the evening. The weather was ideal and there was much more outdoor sports than usual. There was a demonstration of the efficiency of the tractor plows at the playgrounds and this attracted a good sized crowd.

JURY DISAGREES AFTER 21 HOURS

Dover, Feb. 23.—After deliberating 21 hours, the jury in the $5000 suit of Mrs. Louise J. Daum of Dover vs. Ellis Anton, also of Dover, brought to recover for personal injuries sustained in an automobile collision Oct. 12, 1922, on the state highway in Somersworth, reported a disagreement yesterday in the Superior Court. It is understood that a large majority favored a verdict for the plaintiff on an early ballot. The minority stood firm for the defendant until the end.

Mrs. Daum was severely injured on the head when the car her husband, Samuel Daum, was driving and that of Anton came together head-on after Anton had passed a large bakery truck just as the Daum car drove in sight over the brow of a hill.

ELDERLY PRINTERS MAINTAIN TRADITIONS IN ILLINOIS FIELD

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 22.—Two Illinois printers, Mrs. Tillie Hodge, 60, of Tiskilwa, and Col. W. N. Bates, 64, of Pekin, claim the distinction of being the oldest active printers in the United States. Both are hand compositors and both are at work over their cases every work day in the week. Mrs. Hodge in the offices of the Tiskilwa Chief, a weekly newspaper, and Col. Bates in his own print shop in Pekin.

Mrs. Hodge has been connected with newspaper work ever since her teens when she worked in the office of the Bureau County Republic where she earned to set type by hand. Later she went to Chicago, and when President Lincoln was assassinated she helped "hand pick" the story of the event for a Chicago morning newspaper.

Since that time Mrs. Hodge has worked in the South and in several parts of the Middle West. She was married in 1888, but returned to her trade when her husband died in 1888. Mrs. Hodge is remarkably active for her age. She is a student of physical culture and is a busy reader, keeping well informed on current questions.

Col. Bates learned the printing trade in LaFayette, Indiana, at the age of 12 working on a morning paper and setting the type by the light of tallow candles. He still has the stick in which he set his first type.

In those days there was not a sharp division between the work of the editorial staff and the composing staff, and the same men that wrote the newspaper often set it up, printed it and delivered it. Mr. Bates has done considerable reporting in connection with his work on various newspapers. After working on several papers in Chicago and downstate Mr. Bates enlisted in 1861 and fought through the Civil War. At the end of the war he returned to Pekin where he established his own shop in 1870.

Mr. Bates is commander of the local post of the Grand Army of the Republic, which he organized, and is considered an authority on local history.

The Bangor & Aroostook railroad has filed with Maine Public Utilities Commission a new tariff of parlor car seat fares applying between Bangor and the stations on its road, also applying locally between points on its main line. The new tariff which is proposed to be made effective March 23, 1924, establishes increases in the present fares. The present fare of $1.15 from Bangor to Van Buren is to be increased to $1.45; Bangor to Caribou, $1 to $1.25; Bangor to Presque Isle, 90 cents to $1.15; Bangor to Houlton, 75 cents to 90 cents. CARRIES SPLINTER NOSE 25 YEARS

Saco, Me., Feb. 23.—A splinter, one-half inch wide, one and one-half inches long and one thirty-second of an inch that entered the nose of Howard H. Saco 25 years ago, when he was operating an edging machine in a saw mill in Diddford, was removed this week.

The wound was dressed at the time and healed up. It was not known that any of the wood was still in the nose.

There has never been another case like it in the New England medical records, it is said, and the splinter has been taken to Boston, where it was exhibited before a meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Association.

JOINT-EASE For Stiff, Swollen Joints

Rheumatic or Otherwise

Says: "When Joint-Ease Gets in—Joint Agony Gets Out"

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customers to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff, inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make creaky, swollen, tormented joints work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is offered through progressive pharmacists to the millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering up.

Swollen, twingy, inflamed, stiff, painful, tormented joints are usually caused by rheumatism, but whatever the cause Joint-Ease soaks right in, through skin and flesh and gets right to and corrects the trouble at its source.

Remember Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, spine or finger, and when you rub it on, you may expect speedy and gratifying results.

It is now on sale at Philbrick's Pharmacy and Drugists everywhere for 60 cents a tube.

Fruit Juices practically Infallible in Correcting Certain Diseases

After eating fruit and enjoying the delicious flavour of fruits from all over the world, we are just beginning to realize the enormous influence which fruit juices have on our health.

Fruit juices are Nature's medicine; and we now know that fruit juices in certain forms, are infallible in correcting many of the more common diseases.

For instance, we know that certain fruit juices, when concentrated and intensified, act directly on the liver, increasing the flow of bile and also strengthening the muscles controlling the bowels, thus overcoming Constipation—one of the commonest ailments of today and the one which is the cause of so many much more serious complaints.

That these statements are based on known facts, is proved by those taking "Fruit-a-lives", the marvellous medicine made from the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes.

Mrs. John Capozzi of Ashford, New York, writes, "I used several kinds of physic for over three years. While I took it every night, my bowels would move; but as soon as I would stop, I would have piles terribly. I heard of 'Fruit-a-lives' and bought one box and took them. I am not troubled any more with my bowels and no more piles. 'Fruit-a-lives' did for me what no other medicine ever did, and now I do not have to use physic at all."

This letter is certainly convincing proof. "Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 25c and 50c a box—sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ogdensburg, N. Y.

KITTERY POINT

Kittery Point, Feb. 23.—Life at the Isles of Shoals in winter many people would consider a dreary thing, but there are bright days even there. The men who put in the ice one day recently for the Oceanic, had a jolly day and greatly enjoyed the dinner prepared for them by Mrs. Amee. The dinner was served in the long, sunny kitchen with its many windows and beautiful views. The thrifty blossoming plants in the south windows gave a home like look to the room and the cats and dog also gave a home feeling. The dinner consisted of pot roast, potatoes, boiled onions, escalloped corn, buttered beets, pickles, hot oatmeal biscuit, doughnuts, mince pie and coffee. The men did justice to the good things and consider Mrs. Amee a star cook.

MANY HERE SLOWLY POISONED
WHEN FILTER BECOMES CLOGGED

Positively! Yes, that's exactly what happens to you and many others here when your liver, the body's filter, becomes too clogged and sluggish to purify your blood, aid digestion and nourishment or keep your bowels moving so that waste matter is eliminated from the intestines.

It is easy to know when your liver is out of order. Just answer this: Do you wake up mornings feeling dull and tired, bad taste in your mouth, offensive breath or coated tongue? Are you bothered with sour stomach and gas, heart palpitation, sick headaches or a tired-out, nervous, upset condition? Is your system so run-down you catch cold easily and can't throw the cold off?

Get quick relief! Build yourself up by taking a good tonic, as your doctor would advise. Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup has been praised by numbers who suffered from just such troubles because it contains ingredients known to physicians for their corrective, health-building properties. Let it cleanse and tone your liver, put your stomach in condition, send purer blood coursing through your veins and keep you feeling fine. You will be completely satisfied; otherwise druggists are authorized to refund the small cost.

Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup is sold and recommended by Goodwin E. Philbrick, Portsmouth; J. H. Low, Derby, and by leading druggists in every city and town.

Arms For Sale

Arms and ammunition by the millions of rounds, enough so military men estimate, to enable a band of 1,000 men to hold the city for two weeks against combined city, state and federal forces are for sale in Philadelphia. The company which holds the vast supply claims that it acts entirely within the law. One of the interesting features of the expose conducted by the New York Times is the fact that a large part of the material has been scrapped by and purchased from the United States government.

Among the articles of war which this Philadelphia firm is alleged to be in a position to deliver is 1050 machine guns, 7200 rifles and 15,000,000 cartridges. Eight million cartridges are for "immediate delivery."

The presence of this huge store of munitions presents a constant menace to the preservation of order. The fact that any person apparently can walk into the offices of representatives of the firm and acquire as much as he wishes makes the situation doubly dangerous. If it is the custom of the war department to dispose of its war materials so indiscriminately that they may in turn come into questionable private hands, the custom is one which jeopardizes the security of the nation.

A Just Verdict

A New York jury, with a record of swift dealing of justice has impressed upon gangsters that those who plot crimes, though perhaps taking no active part in them, are as guilty as the actual performers of the crime. Joseph G. Diamond and Morris B. Diamond, brothers, were found guilty of murder in separate trials, lasting a total of five days. Though it was not proved that either fired shots which killed the bank messengers, it was admitted in testimony that they participated in the plot which culminated in the killings and they must pay the extreme penalty.

So emboldened have gangsters, not only in New York, become in the past few years that such verdicts as these are as handwriting on the wall. The Diamond brothers, ostensibly killed no one. But they connived the plot which saw murder done. Therefore they are as guilty of the actual killing as the one who fired the fatal shots. The verdict was just, and should serve as a warning to gangsters of all cities that there are no halfway measures in crime.

The junior department of the Middle Street Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a supper at the Baptist chapel on Thursday evening, which was a pleasant social affair. Gobs Mourn for Cigarettes
Officers and crew of the battleship Colorado, which arrived a few days ago at the navy yard, Brooklyn, from a Mediterranean cruise, wore long faces when asked to tell of their experience at Naples on Feb. 1.

Teas were arranged for townsfolk and notables at all ports at which the ship touched. These, all agreed, were successful save at Naples. At the tea given there—well, the naval men told reluctantly how their hospitality was abused and of the loss of spoons and other articles of silverware discovered after their guests had departed.

The depiction of the ship's store of cigarettes, through guests helping themselves to hundreds, was a more serious matter.

NOTES OF A FULL HOUSE

The public was delighted to see Portsmouth Theatre open and said one old timer: "It was good to get back home. With the largest stage north of Boston and the finest acoustics it is a real theatre."

Director Mullen was showered with praise for the way the show was given. He worked early and late.

The patronage accorded the show was all deserved.
The final performance was given a fine send-off, all the members being called before the curtain.

The Knights deserve much credit and Portsmouth certainly has much talent.

LADIES' NIGHT AT ST. JOHN'S LODGE

Fine Program Presented in Observance of Washington's Birthday at Masonic Home

The members of St. John's Lodge and their ladies, to the number of 400, assembled at the Masonic Home Thursday evening, the occasion being a reception and entertainment given in honor of the ladies of the lodge and in celebration of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, who was prominent in Masonry and a past grand master of the state of Virginia.

The Masonic Home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with the Masonic orchestra playing at intervals throughout the evening. The Aeolian Quartette of Boston and Portsmouth assisted by Miss Frances Johnson of Boston as reader, gave excellent entertainment that was received with great enthusiasm by the audience. At the conclusion of the program ices specially prepared for this celebration, consisting of Masonic Glaze and cakes, were served, being surmounted by a small silk American flag, after which all stood and sang while the orchestra played the "Star Spangled Banner." As the party left the Home each lady was presented with a box of chocolates, inscribed with gold letters, giving date and occasion of the party as a souvenir.

The Masonic Home is the social quarters of St. John's Lodge and is maintained for its members without fee except lodge dues, and proposed plans for three new lodge rooms and entertainment hall in the rear of the present Home have already been approved and construction will commence in the near future. St. John's Lodge, said to be the oldest Masonic lodge in this country, with a continuous record of 188 years and is known previous to 1736, the date of its union with the grand lodge of

Constipation is ruinous to children—keep yours healthy with Kellogg's Bran

Constipation undermines a child's health. It saps his energy and makes him listless. It can lead to more than 40 other serious diseases. Mothers should take immediate steps to remove, safely and surely, the dangerous poisons from his system.

Kellogg's Bran—because it is ALL bran—brings permanent relief. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is universally recommended by doctors. They know it brings results.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to give permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran acts on the intestines exactly as nature acts. It sweeps and cleans and purifies them. It makes them function naturally and regularly. It allows you to discontinue forever the use of harmful, habit-forming drugs and pills.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is a delightful surprise to the taste—particularly if one has tried ordinary unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran has a delicious, crisp, nut-like flavor—an exclusive flavor. It is most enjoyable with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals or cooked with hot cereals. Try it in bread, muffins, griddle cakes and other recipes given on every package.

Have your children eat it regularly—two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran is made at Battle Creek and sold at all grocers. It is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant.

Catherine McEvoy who seemed very much at home in her part.

Cornelius M. Driscoll as "Dougherty" the police sergeant, Arthur J. O'Leary as "Jim Mooney," a police officer, and Joseph M. Haley as another of the squad, made three fine looking policemen. Messrs. Driscoll and O'Leary had a lot of work and they both were clever and Mr. O'Leary handled his comedy very nicely.

One of the pleasing features was the two juvenile acts. Miss Dorothy Coughlin a talented little toe dancer, gave two very pretty dances and she gives every indication of being a very graceful and finished performer.

Masters Tom Fullam and Flabar Cochran, staged a very clever impersonation of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheehan, and it was one of the best juvenile acts that has been put on here for many years. Both lads have very fine voices, good stage presence, and acted like veterans. They had some very fine local verses for their song and had to respond to several encores. They added a great deal to the pleasure of the show.

The hard-working but unseen members of the cast who had a lot to do with its success were Arthur O'Leary, stage manager and property man; Louis J. Green, electrician, and Cornelius M. Driscoll, stage carpenter, who, with William H. McDonough the make-up man, were great assistants to Mr. Mullen the guiding light of the show.

The following is the cast:

Parks, a butler Thomas F. Mullen
Susie, from Sioux City Eva M. Burns
Attily Howell, a bride

Agnes Woodward
Miss Winnecker, from Yonkers, the aunt
Daphne Charters, Attily's sister
Nicholas King, a stranger
Charles Dondoro
Ned Pembroke Jr., an only son
H. L. Dunn
George Howell, a bridegroom
Paul Heffernan
Dougherty, a police sergeant

DARTMOUTH STUDENTS TO STUDY POLICIES OF OTHER COLLEGES

Hanover, Feb. 23.—What is believed here to be one of the most unusual experiments in recent educational investigations is the appointment, announced recently by President Ernest Martin Hopkins of Dartmouth, of a committee of undergraduates to study and inquire into educational policies and tendencies of colleges in general, and of Dartmouth in particular, with a view to reporting whether in undergraduate opinion changes in the present system are desirable and, if so, what these should be. The members of the committee will receive scholastic credit for their work of investigation.

The duties of this committee is intended to supplement the work of Prof. Leon E. Richardson, chairman of the faculty committee on educational policy, who has been requested by the trustees of the college to study at first hand conditions and methods of educational policy in colleges and universities of America and England. Prof. Richardson is on leave of absence engaged in the investigation. President Hopkins stated that "the investigation had been prompted by and is an attempt to utilize a great awakening of intellectual interest and enthusiasm in the undergraduate body which makes a new study of our methods and purposes desirable to the end that this interest may be maintained and increased and that it may be developed to the maximum of advantage for society."

President Hopkins further stated he believes that in the past too little attention had been paid to any opinions undergraduates might have had concerning the aims and methods of the colleges.

The undergraduates named on the committee appointed by the president are supposed to represent most branches of undergraduate thought and activity and were selected from the list of high ranking scholars. They are C. O. Aschenbach, East Orange, N. J., captain of the 1923 football team; W. H. Cowley, Brooklyn, editor-in-chief of the Daily Dartmouth; W. S. Dubois, Englewood, N. J.; J. A. Fleming, Helena, Mont.; W. A. Gardner, Montclair, N. J.; C. A. Knudson, Mamaroneck, N. Y.; N. F. MacLean, Missoula, Mont., editor of the Jack O'Lantern; R. W. Morin, Albert Lea, Minn., editor of the Bonny; J. M. Reid, Denver; A. N. Thurston, Rockport, Mass., captain of the baseball team, and M. H. Watkins, Cleveland, football and basketball star.

SULLIVAN IS GOING BACK IN THE ARMY

John L. B. Sullivan, former member of the 9th Infantry Brigade at Fort Constitution, well known in this city, was calling on his old friends here on Thursday. He was on his way to the army post at New Castle, where he will enlist for another hitch in the ranks of Uncle Sam.

Sullivan carries a citation and Distinguished Service medal for action on the battlefield in France. He was with the American Expeditionary Forces from 1917 to 1919 and from 1919 to 1922 with the Army of Occupation, coming back a member of the Fifth Infantry. No man was better known with the Eighth Brigade than Sullivan. He says they can't keep him out of the old city of Portsmouth, regardless of the fact that any place he hangs his hat is his home. He received a warm welcome here on Thursday.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY OF MRS. SPINK

Gives Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Full Credit

Minn. June, Wis.—"I was under treatment, but nothing seemed to help me, and I was run-down and so weak that I had to remain in bed much of the time and was like an invalid. I had pains in my abdomen and in the female organs, and my stomach bothered me. My husband saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and thought it must be good, and brought it home to me and advised me to try it. After taking one bottle I was able to eat, and after six bottles I was doing my own work, which I hadn't been able to do for years. I have a new baby who is doing nicely, and I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and feeling better than I have for four years. The medicine is surely wonderful and a good thing to have in the house."—Mrs. GEORGE SPINK, Minnesota Junction, Wisconsin.

A country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound reports 98 per cent. benefited. For sale by druggists everywhere.

about 200 feet. The judges' stand, which also has accommodations for the newspaper reporters, also has been moved and set farther back from the edge of the track.

Although only one automobile race a year is held at the speedway, a corps of workmen are given year-around employment to keep the place in condition. While the next contest is four months away, much of the routine in connection with it already is being handled. The finishing line on the track was moved back for the accommodation of the fans sitting along the stretch. The old finishing line was only a short distance from the first turn in the 2 1-2 mile oval.

The judges' stand was set back from the edge of the track as a direct result of the introduction of the small, one-seated racing cars which performed here for the first time last May. The numbers painted on the cars were necessarily small and the judges and others had difficulty in checking them correctly.

CARE IN HANDLING JAMAICA GINGER IS NEEDED, SAYS CRAIG

Concord, Feb. 23.—The New Hampshire state druggists convened at the Eagle hotel Wednesday for the annual banquet and social meeting. The officers of the association are chosen at the regular business meeting in June, so that the meeting this week was in the nature of a round table talk.

Interesting addresses were given by after dinner speakers.

Rev. Ora W. Craig of Manchester, state law enforcement commissioner, told the druggists that he and his assistants appreciated the courtesy that had been shown them and the help they had received in enforcing the liquor laws of New Hampshire. He complimented the pharmacists upon their general and very evident determination to obey the law in all its phases. He had little in the way of admonition to give. He did suggest that the greatest care be used in the matter of Jamaica ginger permits and he thought it would be well for druggists, in meeting demands for medicinal liquor, to confine themselves to a few brands satisfactory in quality and in the price at which they may be sold to the legitimate consumer. Mr. Craig voiced the suspicion that some liquor salesmen have been tempted to solicit trade in ways not wholly proper and he thought some of them might have been guilty of stimulation of business in a manner not entirely legal.

The state commissioner referred to recent Supreme Court opinions on the subject of what constitutes illegal possession of liquor. He had heard it said, he remarked, that the opinion of Chief Justice Parsons in the Manchester case of State vs. Demarais, is in conflict with the 18th amendment to the Federal Constitution. Mr. Craig could see little merit in this contention. In his view, if Justice Parsons' opinion collides with any Federal enactment it is with the Volstead law and even here he was not prepared to say that a conflict actually exists. The more recent opinion of Justice Parsons seems to Mr. Craig merely to set forth the principle that a man accused of an offense cannot be forced by law or the method of legal procedure to give testimony in his own case in order to establish his innocence. In other words, the burden of proof, liquor cases as in others, rests upon the state.

Rev. Jonathan S. Lewis, Federal prohibition director for New Hampshire, told the company that he intended to "talk shop." Like Mr. Craig, he complimented the druggists of this state upon their attitude toward the liquor laws, explained something of the Federal enforcement machinery, told of a few of the experiences of himself and the members of his staff and detailed ways in which state and national laws differ and ways in which they dovetail.

OUR NATION'S HEARTHSTONES

"Look well to the hearthstones there in all hope for America lies."—President Coolidge.

Our nation's hearthstones are its homes.

From homes its heroes come; In homes our children proudly tell What dauntless deeds have done. That this fair land of ours was once A wilderness wild and drear, That its fruition came with men Whom God gave foothold here.

They ploughed and planted, built rude homes, A house to worship God, And careful gathered harvest yield That grew on their free sod.

From o'er the sea came souls oppressed Their liberty to share, To these they gave the helping hand, A cordial welcome there.

And where oppression from afar Would quench their hearthstone fires, From firesides sons of liberty came, Young men, lads, and old sons.

Today our children proudly tell These men fought with a will And gained a glorious victory In the light on Dunker Hill.

Our Nation's flag of thirteen stars That Betsy Ross first made Was this land's emblem of the free, O'er thirteen states it waved.

Today the Nation's flag contains A star for every state, Each star a hearthstone of free men And numbers forty-eight.

The deeds of men who gave this land Today in history shine. The Nation's hearthstones they built here

Have made this land a shrine, And ever on free soil they gave The Nation's flag shall wave, And by its hearthstones there will stand

Defenders, staunch and brave. CLARA A. LYNN.

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

The late President Harding said, "I believe in advertising. It has done more to bring humanity to right understanding than almost anything else in the world."

We, too, believe in advertising and its value as a moulder of public opinion. And we have a splendid message to tell—a message of uninterrupted service, made possible because of the loyal and unselfish work of our employees.

We have but one thing to sell—service. Everything else is incidental to service. But he who serves cannot serve successfully unless he receives his rightful measure of appreciation. Appreciation! That's the greatest reward for service; occasional appreciation by those who are being served.

So when we advertise, we advertise service. And the purpose behind the advertising is to secure what our late President defined as "right understanding."

GUNBOAT JACK IS BEATEN BY WOODS

Large Crowd Attends Holiday Boxing Bouts at Freeman's Hall

Bill Woods, the old veteran boxer, clearly outfought Gunboat Jack of Lawrence in a holiday show at Freeman's hall on Friday afternoon. There was no question of the decision and the opinion of the referee and the two judges was endorsed by all of those present. Woods knows more about the game than the colored boy and his blocking was a work of art. The colored lad is clever, has a long reach, is willing and can hit, but against the superior skill of the veteran he was lost.

Two weeks ago Woods and Gunboat Jack fought in Manchester and, while Woods got the decision, there were many who questioned his right to it. There he was out of condition and had to chase the colored lad about the ring. Here it was different, he was in splendid shape and made the other lad come to him the most of the time and the result was apparent after the first round. Jack did not have a round in his favor, while in the first and second rounds he reached Woods' stomach, it did not appear to disturb him and after that those blows were elbowed off, at the same time Woods would counter to the head with his left. In fact, he kept his left in the colored boy's face a good part of the time.

Woods was superior in infighting and while both men finished in good condition the Lawrence lad was tired. It was a good bout with action all through the match.

Bill Dow staged a fine show, for every bout was well matched and interesting and the large crowd, which represented all the surrounding towns and cities, was well pleased. Dover and Biddeford were well represented, while there was a good crowd here from Exeter.

Young Deuselet of Dover was given the decision over Young Drew of Biddeford in the semi-finals and this was a grueling contest. Many were of the opinion that a draw would have been right, but the vote of the referee and judges was two for Deuselet and one for a draw. Drew is considerably heavier than the Dover boy and he is a tough lad, but Deuselet led the pace the greater part of the bout and it was at times give and take. Deuselet outpointed Drew considerably, he landed cleaner and they were milling it hard in the last round which Drew had a slight shade the better of. The Dover lad is a human dynamo in the ring and it is small wonder that the Dover fans follow him around.

Young Alberts defeated Kid Brown of Biddeford in a very fast bout, in which the Portsmouth lad showed up the best he has ever shown here. He clearly had the better of the milling from the second round and the decision was unanimous. Brown, who fought in Portland Tuesday, had a bad right hand which he was nursing and this slowed him up some. A return match between these two boys is promised, as Brown is confident that he can win.

The curtain raiser was a four-round bout in which Young Gardiner and Emory Nohl figured and Gardner was given the decision, being by far the better boxer and with more experience.

Rioz refereed and the judges were James Dawson of Dover and James A. McCarthy of this city.

A special train came through from Rochester, Somersworth and Dover and upwards of 150 made the trip.

KITTERY NEWS

Kittery, Me., Feb. 23.—Last evening the Piscataqua Men's Club proved once again that they were royal entertainers. They served a fine supper from 5 to 7 and the good "smells" just made a person hungry. Everyone did justice to this feast and praised the "boys" sky high. At 7.30 they had arranged a very attractive program which brought forth much applause from the large audience present. The Lyric Quartette of Portsmouth have made many friends for themselves over here, across the river. They were obliged to answer several recalls. The violin duet by Rev. Mr. Robinson and Vinson Philbrick was finely rendered. Mr. Seales of Eliot has given readings in Kittery before. He never fails to please and bring forth hearty laughs. Robert Whitman and Howard Paul are two of Kittery's favorite singers. As Mr. Paul has been out of town for some time it was a treat to once more hear him sing. Albert Seward is one of our rising young musicians in which we are taking great interest. The clarinet solo by Mr. Hampton was finely rendered and we hope to hear him often while he is in town. Harlow Parsons surprised his friends and it is quite certain that when he can spare the time he will be asked to entertain with his saxophone many times. Yes, it was a splendid time. Here's to the next in 1925. The program follows:

Selection, Orchestra
"Tia Morn" Lyric Quartette
Violin duet, Valse Diane
Messrs. Robinson and Philbrick

ELIOT

Eliot, Feb. 23.—Miss Marion Cook has received word from the American Thread Co. that she has won third prize in the Star Needle Work Contest Class A, for a very beautiful centerpiece. The prize being $35. This same piece won $25. at the Rochester Fair last fall. Miss Cook certainly is to be congratulated on her crochet work. It is beautiful. She is at present filling an order for a luncheon set which calls for 24 pieces done in the rose pattern.

Miss Alice Harrington of Smith-Patterson Co. of Boston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hanscom over the holiday and week end.

All lot owners who are interested in the cemetery movement should come forward at this time to make this thing possible. The association is desirous of purchasing the property as soon as the amount can be raised. They need only a few more to come forward and help to make permanent an association that has for several years been talked over and talked about but which can never be materialized without intensive action. Any one wishing any information can obtain it by consulting any of the officers.

Albert and Ruth Libbey are visiting their parents over the holiday and week end.

One of the worst storms of the winter left us a generous contribution in high drifts and solidly packed roads. It will be several days before they can be passable to any degree of safety. Several automobiles and trucks were stuck and abandoned by the road side. With no adequate facilities for breaking out these rough roads are a menace.

The Kittery Laundry truck was caught in the snow and is still in the drift near the Congregational church.

Mrs. William Nelson is visiting Mrs. Noyes on Beech road.

Mr. George Goodwin who has been ill is improving.

There was no session of the high school Thursday on account of the bad storm.

Edwin Silsbury, genial conductor on the Boston and Maine Railroad, who was given a birthday surprise party on his 70th anniversary in Somerville, is well known in town, being a brother of the late Otis Silsbury. Congratulations to "Abner" from his Eliot friends, may he live to enjoy many more like occasions.

The death of Aaron B. Cole did not come as a great surprise to his friends in town. They were aware of his poor health and that he had failed in strength in the past few weeks. No eulogy is necessary. He was born here and lived among us all his life. Sympathy is extended to his bereaved family where he will be missed the most, and where the vacancy can never be filled.

Great efforts were made Thursday and Friday to open up the state road from Kittery to Kennard's Corner, that working men might get to and from their work. In the meantime the Boardman boat having less difficulty by water, was caring for the traveling public, and working to schedule day by day.

Washington's Birthday passed off rather quietly in the town. Home parties recognized the day. The schools celebrated on Thursday, No. 7 rendering a suitable play.

RELIEF CORPS HAS NOVEL GATHERING

Colonial Costumes Add Color to Washington's Birthday Party at Memorial Home

Storer Relief Corps No. 6 held a novel Washington's Birthday party at Memorial Hall on the holiday afternoon, which was an enjoyable affair and attended by a good sized gathering.

The hall was decorated prettily with American flags and red streamers. It was a real Colonial party and the members of Storer Relief Corps were attired in costumes of long ago, this giving added interest to the affair.

As an opening feature a grand march was held, this being led by Commander Charles Ledge of Storer Post, and Mrs. Amy I. Winn, president of Storer Relief Corps. The latter wore powdered hair and a Colonial gown. They were followed by the other members of the Post present, escorting Corps members and then came the members of the Corps in couples. Mrs. Elizabeth A. Ballou represented Martha Washington, wearing a striped gown over a century old, hoop skirt, Paisley shawl, bonnet and silk mitts. Mrs. Lizzie Fernald wore a gown equally as old.

A pleasing program followed the numbers being mostly patriotic and

The program was fitting, varied and pleasing and each number was listened to with interest. The children of both schools did especially well. Miss McKell's pupils had no program ready as the holiday came in vacation, but when asked to take part they, aided by their teacher, met and rehearsed selections for the occasion. The young misses who gave the recitation "The Red, White and Blue," wore dresses of those shades. Little Mildred Bickford, who gave two recitations on the program, is but six years of age. She wore an old fashioned gown and bonnet and won much applause.

No admission was charged but refreshments of Washington pies of various kinds and coffee was on sale and a social time enjoyed after the program and a very good sum was cleared for the Corps. The pie table was trimmed with flags and red roses and ferns; at each end was a brass candlestick holding red candles and in the center of the table a potted cherry tree. The pies looked most attractive, with the various kinds of frosting and many decorated with flags or cherries.

The affair was in general charge of Mrs. Gertrude Merrifield, assisted by Mrs. Mae Spinney, Mrs. Elizabeth Fernald, Mrs. Mildred Bickford, Mrs. Emma Marshall had charge of the pies, assisted by Mrs. Merrifield, Mrs. Meda Chick, Mrs. Mary Bridle, Mrs. Rachel Crowell, Miss Edith M. MENNELLY'S TUESDAY EVENING

The McNelly orchestra in coming to this city Tuesday evening goes to show how much they like to play in Portsmouth. They were booked to play a battle of music with Whiteman's orchestra up in Worcester this Tuesday but, cancelled the booking upon the request of the Musician's Union who have their annual concert and dance there on Wednesday evening. Instead of putting the team in at the state ballrooms in Boston or the Crescent Garden ballroom at Revere which could have been done, they telephoned the Portsmouth management and gave us the first option on the date. Just their way of showing appreciation for the splendid support of Portsmouth people covering a period of many years.

BIG HOLIDAY CROWD ENJOYS WINTER SPORTS

The ideal winter sports weather and the holiday was enjoyed by hundreds of people with out of door activities. The most of this was at the Pines where conditions are excellent. The heavy snow and the hard crust has made the coasting wonderful and the toboggan chute was going fast and smooth.

Thursday night there was a good number enjoying the fun, but the real crowd was during the holiday morning, afternoon and evening. It was the biggest of the season and it would be hard to estimate the number that were there during the entire day.
